Reminders/News

mClass assessments for the middle of the year will start this week. A team of teachers will be doing some of the assessments on Tuesday. I will finish them up before we track out. Let me know if you have any questions.

We are getting into the Thanksgiving spirit. Kindergarten is putting on a Thanksgiving play and then each class will have desserts in their classrooms afterward. Please return the bottom portion of the letter that went home Thursday so we can plan for the 22nd. Also, help your child learn his/her lines for the play by this Thursday, if possible. Lines will come home Monday in the purple folder. Plan on joining us for dessert after the play. I will send out a sign up at the beginning of the week.

Scholastic book orders are due by November 28th.

Our O'Holly Night basket theme is Disney. Please send in any donations.

Our specials schedule is:
